

Student Questions

1. Does the library own a copy of A History of the English Language by Albert C. Baugh? (in-house book)
2. How would you get a copy of The History of Venezuela by H. Micheal Tarver and Julia C. Frederick? (book, ohiolink)
3. You have a research project due, where would you go to find journals and articles in your field of study?
4. Does the library own Volume 109 of Psychological Review? (in-house journal)
5. How would you get a full text copy of "An Appraisal Theory of Empathy and Other Vicarious Emotional Experiences" from the May 11, 2015 issue of Psychological Review? (electronic journal)
6. Where would you go to find materials your professor has put on Reserve? (course reserves)
7. Where on the library's site would you find a research guide (a list of books, articles and Web links) that would help you start your art history research? (libguides)
8. You would like to use your home computer to search the databases of magazine and journal articles offered by the library. Where on the site would you go to find the instructions for doing this?
9. You need to cite an article from an online source using the APA format. Where can you learn how to do this on the library site?
10. You are at home doing research for a sociology paper, and you would like to ask for help. How would you contact a librarian for help?

Faculty Questions:

1. The library has a link to help you reserve books or articles for term papers and assignments. Find this link, and go through the process of reserving a book. (specialized resources)
2. Where does the library have information on creating online research modules? (Web resources)
3. Where can you find out who your Library Liaison is?
4. How would you go about setting up an Information Literacy session for you class?
5. You need help depositing your work in the Digital Commons, where would you find information about who to contact?
6. You want to offer your students extra credit for attending events on campus, where would you find information about library events this semester?
7. How would you go about requesting the library purchase specific materials to support your teaching and research?
8. Where would you find contact information for the Library Director?
9. What two things helped you the most when using the Web site?
10. What two things need improvement to help you more easily search the Web site?